You'll find that marking chords for the Cuatro is almost the same as with the Ukulele. The same figures are used and you will basically do exactly the same as when playing the Ukulele (but transposing everything down one tone). Getting familiar with the Cuatro chords is just a matter of remembering that everything is transposed down one tone.

The most used cuatro chords are made with the major, minor and seventh, but feel free to try some different combinations whenever you're playing a song. For example, you could try E minor sixth instead of E minor, or D major seventh instead of D major. Feel free to play with them and see which one sounds good when used as a substitution.
